From time to time photographs of class activities are taken to demonstrate the practical content of our courses. These photographs are used solely by First Aid North. If you do not wish to be included on any such photographs please tick here

Please note that there is a physical component to First Aid and that all candidates must be able to carry out practical tasks throughout the course as well as an assessment at the end. These tasks include dealing with an unconscious casualty on the floor, therefore you must be able to kneel on the floor for short periods. Please tick this box to state that you are physically able to carry out these tasks
